

A/Prof. Matthew Hole is a Senior Fellow of the ANU and a fusion scientist. Matthew is the founding Chair of the Australian ITER Forum, a research network spanning over 180 scientists and engineers advocating Australian participation in ITER, the Australian member of the IAEA International Fusion Research Council, a member of the Board of Editors of Plasma Physics and Controlled Fusion, and an ITER Science Fellow.

A/Prof. Matthew John Hole,
Plasma Theory and Modelling,
Centre for Plasmas and Fluids,

Office    +61 2 6125 7606    Mobile    +61 417 148 114
Fax        +61 2 6125 4676
email:    matthew.hole@anu.edu.au

Research School of Physics and Engineering
Australian National University    Canberra ACT 0200, AUSTRALIA

Plasma Theory and Modelling
<https://physics.anu.edu.au/cpf/ptm/>

Personal web page
<http://people.physics.anu.edu.au/~hol105/>

Chair, Australian ITER Forum
<http://fusion.ainse.edu.au>

Vice Chair, Division of Plasma Physics, Association of Asia Pacific Physical Societies