

Dear AAPPS-DPP members

While it will take announcement of acceptance of contributed talks, LOC asked me to announce that hotel reservation should be made as soon as possible.

There will be another larger international conference in parallel.

So booking should be made ASAP.

Plenary, invited and evening speakers has better to do it now.

Regards,

M. Kikuchi

p.s. 1st announcement : We strongly recommend DPP2018 participants to make early reservations on the hotels. For reservation, please go directly to the hotel's online reservation system or agent site.
