

AAPPS-DPP Bylaw of chair-elect selection (Draft)

2020.02.18. AAPPS-DPP CEO

1. Chair-elect: Chair-elect will be one of Board of Directors who will become chairman next to current chairman. Term is two years after appointment and is expected to be a chairman afterword.
2. Selection of chair-elect: Chair-elect nominee will be selected among candidates by voting by AAPPS-DPP Delegates and will be appointed as one of members of the Board of Directors by the General Assembly.
3. Eligibility of chair-elect: DPP member who has strong scientific capability in the field of plasma physics and has vision to take scientific leadership on DPP activities.
4. Eligibility of delegates: DPP members who actually joined DPP activities in the past such as 1) DPP founder, 2) past exco members, 3) I-HAC members, 4) RMPP editorial board members, 5) authors of RMPP, 6) participants of past DPP annual conferences (1st to 4th).
5. Nomination of chair-elect: Any DPP member can nominate chair-elect. Nomination shall include, 1) Nomination letter not more than three pages, 2) One-page seconding letters from DPP members from 3 countries/regions, 3) Bio of candidate, 4) Past activities on AAPPS-DPP, 5) Vision statement of candidate. Nomination package shall be sent to AAPPS-DPP CEO electronically as one pdf file. Deadline will be announced as appropriate.
6. Nomination of delegates: DPP member who is eligible to be a delegate and wish to be a delegate shall submit his wish at DPP Web page. Appointment of delegates will be decided by the Board of Directors considering the regional, field and gender balance subject to advice from I-HAC chair.